Primavera Chamber Ensemble

Michael Dussek - piano
Paul Manley - violin
Martin Smith - violin
Catherine Musker - viola
Andrew Fuller - cello

Formed in 1986 , the name of the group is based on the Italian word for spring, reflecting the joie de vivre that its musicians bring to their performances. Primavera as one of Britain's finest ensembles has created an enviable reputation with an accolade of reviews at international festivals in Britain, including Brighton, Canterbury, Mayfield, Newbury, Perth, Winchester and also abroad, in the Netherlands, Italy, Malta, France and Slovenia. They have made regular appearances on the South Bank and at the Wigmore Hall. and made two TV series entitled Music in Mansions for Meridian Television.

As a small 'chamber band' they have recorded highly appraised cd's of Mendelssohn String symphonies, Russian String works, a French and English collection of string music and as an ensemble, the Mendelssohn's Octet and Second String Quintet. Recent tours abroad included concerts at the Almera Festival in the Netherlands, Vasto, Parma, Emilia Romagna, Sadurano Festivals in Italy and Ljubljana Festival in Slovenia.

New commissions have included works by leading composers such as Paul Patterson, Patrick Gowers, Gavyn Bryars, Malcolm Lipkin and Phillip Glass.
