the wrong way up the one way system around school leaving time, informant is blind and lollipop man had to pull him out the way of the bike.

FUTURE ACTIVITY/ PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT MEETINGS: -

Operation Paradiso, an operation to target nuisance vehicles will be re-commenced as soon as officers become available, this is to tackle nuisance vehicles causing problems for rural residents. Paradiso will resume in the Winter, dates to follow.

For the next six weeks PC Joe DALLARDA will be arranging and attending all public engagements when he is available to do so, and patrolling our rural villages, please email or call Joe with any enquiries. Although I am seconded onto a special operation for the next six weeks, I am still available if you wish to call or email me, I am always happy to help where I can but please direct your enquiries to Joe in the first instance, many thanks Jo HAMMOND.

DAMAGE TO TREES WHITEPOST LANE – COBHAM 19/12-20/12

Due to the large number of calls to Police from concerned residents regarding the trees that have been damaged/cut down along White post Lane/junction Copt Hall Road, I just wanted to reassure residents that Police have collated all the calls and are conducting enquiries, a crime report has been raised and if anyone has any cctv/mobile phone footage of this incident taking place that would help Police with enquiries please email myself or Joe DALLARDA in order we can add these to the report, it may also help us identify the suspects

John Quick thinking!

When traders turned up at John's house offering to fix his roof, he called the police because he knew his roof didn't need fixing. Turns out they were fraudulent traders.

John kept out the fraudsters, make sure you do too!
